Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, farmers markets provide important statewide marketing opportunities for farmers and a significant part of the rural economy; and

WHEREAS, across South Carolina, 3 state farmers markets and more than 66 local markets offer consumers convenient access to farm-fresh healthy fruits and vegetables, flowers and plants, herbs, baked goods, and other products at affordable prices; and

WHEREAS, farmers markets serve as integral links between urban, suburban, and rural communities, affording farmers and consumers the chance to interact; and

WHEREAS, the popularity of farmers markets continues to rise as increasing numbers of consumers discover the joys and pleasures of shopping for unique products direct from the farm and buying familiar items in their freshest possible state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim August 6 - 12, 2006, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the importance of farmers markets and the bountiful production of the farmers who, while providing for our needs, are valuable assets to the economy of the Palmetto State.
